

Hi, I'm Pam Henderson. It is my privilege and joy to work alongside our most awesome vendors and suppliers to produce Priority Bible study resources for you. It's indescribably rewarding to partner with these precious professionals who have generous hearts for the Lord's work.

Joe and I have been married 29 years. We serve the Lord as co-directors of the Journey Through the Scriptures class at Sagemont Church.

On Saturday mornings in the summer months, we enjoy water-skiing and jet-skiing.

Sherlock is our Miniature Schnauzer. He got his name from his detective skills when he deduced our home would be the best place ever for adoption. Our friends say he hit the mother load of love and affection. We begin and end every day laughing – he's just the most comical and sweet baby boy ever! He's my Little Snugglebuddy.

One day each week is reserved for Elizabeth, my 93-year-old mother-in-law. After her standing weekly appointment at the hairdresser, we enjoy lunch out. Our whole family loves hearing her tell about her life in the early 20th century.

In late September 2007, we welcomed Kate Davis into our family when she and my stepson Mark were married. Kate is beautiful, gracious, loving, capable – well, she's just perfect for our Mark and we are delighted she's a Henderson now.

Mark's sister Julie, her husband Davis, and our three grandchildren came all the way from South Carolina to be in the wedding party.

Grandsons Walton (11) and Malcolm (12) and granddaughter Cameron (8) were more than happy to help Uncle Mark and their new Aunt Kate tie the knot. The entire evening was magical.

You may not have noticed, but there is a bit of trivia about Davises in our family. My maiden name is Davis, Kate's maiden name is Davis, our son-in-law's first name is Davis because his mother's maiden name is Davis. We've not yet found a common ancestor in our recent past. It will be fun to see if our grandchildren collect more Davises along the way!
